

SUMMIT ON TRANSFORMING DATA INTO ACTION

Welcome to the What Works Cities Summit: Transforming Data Into Action!

Welcome!

Welcome to the iconic Lotte New York Palace Hotel, known for unparalleled splendor, spectacular views, and exquisite service. You are located in the heart of Manhattan, across the street from St. Patrick's Cathedral and only steps from Rockefeller Center. Thank you for attending the WWC Summit. We are looking forward to our time with you.

Hotel Information

In addition to your room stay, WWC has arranged for complimentary wireless access in your room. Please use your room number to access the Internet. Also, bellman service for your luggage has been pre-paid so no tipping is necessary. Checkout time is at 12:00 PM. On Wednesday, April 20th, please plan to check out of your room before the meeting starts at 9:00 AM and store your luggage at the bell stand.

WWC Summit Registration

Please stop by the Summit registration desk, located on the mezzanine in the Villard Foyer, to receive your meeting packet and information about the Summit. Please wear your name badge for the duration of the event for access to the sessions and activities. WWC Community Dinner

On Tuesday evening, April 19th, we invite all attendees to join us at Dos Caminos for a community dinner. This dinner is agenda-less, with casual dress. You are encouraged to join the other city attendees from your area at the restaurant to meet and greet other champions doing similar work as you are with What Works Cities. Meet outside in the Hotel Courtyard (on Madison Ave) at 6:30 PM on Tuesday and we will be walking as a group. Dinner will be from 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM. Summit name badges will be required for entry.
